

Know any great, active young people in Rapid City?

They need to hear about
Junior LRC!

JUNIOR
LEADERSHIP
RAPID CITY

Junior LRC is a 5 week leadership program modeled after the adult LRC program, tailored to high school students.

Participants have the opportunity to:

- Build leadership skills
- Practice professionalism
- Meet community leaders
- Learn about a variety of community-relevant topics
- Attend "Business Day at the Legislature" in Pierre
- Network with other young leaders

This program is excellent both for college-bound students working to build a broad resumé of activities, as well as for vocationally-oriented students who wish to begin connecting with the local community.

Program dates: Thursdays, 4:00-8:00pm from January 28 through March 4, 2010.
Two full-day sessions include Sat., Feb. 13 and Thurs., Feb. 18 (Pierre).

Who is eligible to apply: High school sophomores, juniors and seniors from any Rapid City public or private school, and homeschooled students.

Application Deadline: November 30, 2009

Tuition: Participant cost is just $25 thanks to support from the Chamber and sponsorships from the local business community.

The Jr. LRC webpage is currently under construction. Check the LRC Committee link on the Chamber website (www.rapidcitychamber.com) for a link to Jr. LRC information and application, coming soon.
